

Sally Villalba, ACC, Hypnotist
Trainer/Facilitator
Executive Coach

Sally is a Senior Coach and Training Associate with CMA. As such, she has brought a broaden viewpoint to her assignments.

Sally has a Masters in International business, A BA in Business and is bi-lingual and multicultural professional.

Professionally, she has significant business experience and knowledge in leadership and organizational development. She worked over 15 years in the global corporate marketplace and 20 years in the commercial banking industry.

Sally has a proven track record of assisting her clients to maximize business opportunities in both domestic and international markets. Her management background and skill sets have been instrumental in inspiring numerous professionals to reach their full potential, leading them to achieve their desired goals and successful growth in their respective business sectors.

Sally has in depth experience in business development, foreign trade, portfolio management, risk management, customer service management and diversification in products and services. Her tenure in the Banking Industry yielded opportunities to obtain skill sets in Financial Analysis Small Business Lending and Technical Assistance.

A graduate of the “Certified Coaches Federation (CCF) as a Business Coach and “International Coaching Federation (ICF) she has also earned additional certifications and other professional achievements. Sally has received Level One and Two Certification in Quantum Healing Hypnosis as a practitioner.

Sally is a seasoned Trainer and Facilitator in English and Spanish. Her specialty areas are Leadership Development.

